We are looking for a Trainee Air Conditioning Technician to join a new & growing company in Lowestoft.

Covering East Anglia and parts of London, you will be assisting our senior AC Technicians with carrying out planned and reactive maintenance to both commercial and residential clients.

The ideal candidate will have completed college training in either: refrigeration plumbing, electrical or construction trades.

Daily Duties

- Assist with installation & Commissioning of Single/Multi Spilt Air Conditioning/Refrigeration systems for domestic and commercial clients.
- Assist with Diagnosing / Fault finding on Air Conditioning / Refrigeration systems
- Assist with Undertaking planned preventative maintenance on Air Conditioning/ Refrigeration systems.
- Assist with Carrying out remedial repairs as required.
- Assist with Safety checks and commissioning.
- Travelling/Driving to client sites (multiple jobs per day)
- Assist with Communicating to the management teams regarding faults, diagnostics, Customer issues and support.
- Assist with Keeping clear and precise safety & admin documentation.
- Assist with Customer retention and product promotion as required.
- Assist with Developing Company Policies and Procedures as required.
- Workshop Maintenance and training as required.
- Participate and attend all assigned company training programs/courses.

About You:

- You will be a problem solver, with a positive attitude towards your work and crucially a team player.
- Can do attitude and willing to work weekends at agreed overtime rates with assigned schedule.
- Good attitude with a proactive approach to all tasks.
- Punctual & Polite.
- Full & Clean Driving License.
- Target driven and resilient.
- Pro-active and self-motivated with an inherent ability to think on your feet.
- Have confidence with energy and enthusiasm.
- Organised and able to manage your own workload.
- Good communicator with excellent presentation and relationship building skills.
- Good team ethic and suited to working in a fast-paced environment.